

Free Presbyterian Youth Council

'Remember now thy creator in the days of thy youth' - Ecclesiastes 12:1

2010 MARCH REGIONAL RALLY REPORT (SIXMILECROSS FPC)

By Mr Stephen Nelson

Sixmilecross Free Presbyterian Church played host to the South West / West Youth Council regional rally on Friday 12th March. Members of the local group were joined by fellowships from Omagh, Clogher Valley, Kesh, Aghnacloy, Cookstown and Ballymagerney. Rev Abraham (Aghnacloy) conducted the opening time of praise and called upon Rev Robinson (Kesh) to lead in prayer.

Ryan Kinney (Cookstown) testified of God's grace in his life as he shared the interesting story of his conversion to Christ. The young people from Aghnacloy contributed in song, and Rachel Nelson (Sixmilecross) gave a report of the 2009 summer outreach, which had taken her to Rutherglen in Scotland. Rachel encouraged all not to forget the work on the mainland where the need was especially great.

A challenging message on the chosen theme – The Marks of Grace – was delivered by Rev Nelson (Sixmilecross). Basing his remarks on 2 Peter 1:5-11, he encouraged the young people to walk worthy of their calling, and to furnish appropriate evidence of their faith.

After a closing hymn, Rev Cartwright (Ballymagerney) concluded with prayer. A time of fellowship followed, and supper was served by the Sixmilecross young people.